The Tuxedo Tennis Club is almost ready for 2023 Opening and the 350 membership cap is getting closer so a reminder to get registered

The TTC Board is excited to announce The Tuxedo Tennis Club Hitting-Wall Installation Project is reaching it's final stage and encourage all registered members to attend the virtual membership meeting to find out more about this exciting Project.

Water should be running by Saturday April 22nd, and the courts are ready for a wash the following Monday (weather permitting). When the courts are all ready we'll send out another update. Until then monitor hold my court.

Book a court or just swing by to see all the happenings as we get ready for a smooth opening. Club volunteers are busy getting things ready for their Spring Planting and it's expected to be another beautiful display.

We still have fence room for anybody wanting to make their business promoted to our members.

John Ewing, President
Tuxedo Tennis Club Board

President John Ewing from the Tuxedo Tennis Club says "We have project support of our councillor Evan Duncan, financial support confirmed from the city, and our development permit is in place. We are ready to go in to the new tennis season, and this project will not impede play access on any of our courts and the hitting wall is a really exciting opportunity for the club."

See tournament dates lined up for TTC

-Tuxedo open, adult tournament, July 13-16

-Tuxedo Junior, June 1-4
