Good Things are Happening - Construction has Begun

The TTC Board is excited to announce

Club Hitting-Wall and Half Court Project Update

Weather has cooperated and soil conditions have been most favourable for our wall foundation construction.

We now have the wall base in place, and after sufficient curing time, the forming of the wall and base installation will be proceeding.

Still on schedule for completion end of July.

The club court booking system operates under booking rules to create a fairness of court booking opportunities.

On Saturday at approximately 9 am the courts for the following week are open for booking. Each member is entitled to book a max of 2 court times and must list all participants in a booking.

Participation in club programs are not counted in this limitation.

On Sunday, everyone is considered to have had an opportunity to book under the 2 court limit. Members can now go back in and book additional times.

WHY DO WE REQUIRE ALL NAMES on a booking?

Simple , it is so we can monitor Saturday name entries, in case members don't understand how the booking limit works, and we can help clarify booking process.

Questions we hear and we thought you'd like to know...

- can we get a booking system with no ads? We get ads because we use a free version of hold my court. There are pay booking systems, which we can again research. It is a 'value for money vs. need' type of decision that the Board routinely considers.

- can we simplify the court booking to one name only, with court players somehow behind this name? Yes, these types of programs are available, and again at a subscription cost, which for our small club can add a significant operating cost.

Lost & Found

Are you missing your favourite pair of sunglasses, water bottle, what about a tennis racket? Next time you're at the clubhouse take a peek through the Lost and Found.

The Club will be fully staffed next week - Lohit and Mike are starting full time alongside Lainie. They are there to help, STOP in the clubhouse, say hello and introduce yourself.
